

Everybody Needs a Hero...

How much will you give? How far will you go to be a Hero?

Neglected or abused in the past and uncertain what the future holds, nobody needs a hero more than a foster child. CIVIC CASA is dedicated to helping every foster child in the Sixth Judicial Circuit of South Dakota of a safe and permanent home. It's a big job.

Giving one foster child a voice in the court system – a qualified volunteer advocate who is committed to walking with the child through the legal jungle of foster care – costs about $800 per year.

Hero bids of any amount are welcomed. Please complete the information below, and you will be recognized as a "Hero" during CASAblanca on Saturday, March 28th, 2009.
